

June 5th, 2020

Housing Providers' Role in Collective Impact for Education and Beyond

Presenters

- Colin Groth, Executive Vice President of Strategy and Development, StriveTogether
- Anne Griffith, Director, Economic Mobility and Public Housing Program, Enterprise Community Partners
- Christina Hodgkinson, Director of Resident Services, Akron Metropolitan Housing Authority
- Alyse Oneto, Research Analyst, Urban Institute (Moderator)

Session Agenda

- Overview (20 minutes)
 - Local and national perspective on collective impact initiatives
 - Housing providers' role in supporting equitable student achievement across the learning continuum
 - The importance of centering racial equity in collective impact
- Facilitated discussion (30 minutes)
 - What is the role of collective impact?
 - How are housing providers currently engaging in this work? What are the successes and challenges? How can partners identify gaps and implement solutions to support communities?
 - How can collective impact actively address and dismantle institutionalized racism through programmatic and systems-level solutions?
- Reflections (10 minutes)